Stewardship Thought: Paul and Barnabas encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We, too, may meet with reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God. But, the Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.

From Sr. Joann, This Sunday we celebrate the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. This is a good reminder that if as a worshipping community we want holy, healthy priests, sisters, and lay ministers then we need to encourage our youngsters to at least consider one of these as a future vocation. In the past year have you encouraged even one individual to consider a life of service to the church? Good question to ponder!

Next Friday I will be leaving for a week's vacation in Florida and returning late Saturday, May 8. I am looking forward to the warmth, the beach, good conversations with friends and time to just relax.

We offer our prayers and sympathy to Roger Scherzer on the loss of his brother, Bill. May Bill enjoy his new and eternal home.
