Stewardship Thought: Even though society might condemn her, Mary recognized that her pregnancy was a gift of God, meant to make visible His love for the world. And she proclaimed it as such to her intuitive cousin, Elizabeth: My being proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God, my savior. How is the spirit of God being manifest in your life? Does your spirit rejoice in God? Ask Mary to share her joy with you.

This week in the Parish

Wednesday, Aug. 18th - Mass 7:00 p.m.
 Sunday, Aug. 22 - Drop off your rummage sale items
 10:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
 at the parish center.

From Sr. Joann, Today is the feast of the Assumption of Mary. In our news-dominated culture we tend to view events historically. From this viewpoint the solemnity of the assumption celebrates what happened to Mary in the past. Liturgy however, does more than recall a past event. It draws us into divine mystery where that event is now. This feast invites us as Christians to see in the Virgin raised to heaven the image of all believers on the way to the eternal glory reserved for them by God.

I hope in this last month of summer you will be able to take some quality time for relaxation, family gatherings and fun.

If someone from the parish is homebound and would like to receive Communion, please call the parish office @ 893-1072 and let us know.
