From Sr. Joann, Already the tone of the scriptures is beginning to change. For weeks we have been hearing parables of the kingdom, the cost of discipleship, the meaning of the coming of the messiah, and of his dying. Now the scriptures are starting to turn toward the second half of this season. As the destination of Jesus' journey comes closer – the city of Jerusalem – questions arise, as in the readings for today: Who will be saved? Who will save us? The scriptures contend that God's plan, known from the beginning of time, continues to unfold.

Enjoy the last weeks of summer.

We offer our prayers and sympathy to the family of Sharon Keit, who was buried from St. Hedwig's this past week. Sharon was the daughter-in-law of Irene Keit and the sister-in-law of Rosalie Wescott, Barbara Nelsen and Edward Keit. May Sharon and all the faithful departed rest in peace.
