Thought: In today's first reading, the Israelites are urged to love their neighbors as themselves. In the Gospel, Jesus spells out how we are to do that – to give generously to those who ask of us and not to turn our backs on those who seek to borrow.

From Sr. Joann: With the beginning of Lent very late this year, we continue to celebrate Sundays in Ordinary Time and hear St. Matthew's gospel. For the past three weekends we have heard teachings of Jesus from the Sermon on the Mount taken from this gospel. Additional thoughts from this Sermon are contained in today's gospel and in the gospels for the next two weekends.

Our Newest Member

We welcome with great joy KC Lee Sevilla, the son of Wayne and Gina Sevilla who was baptized at St. Hedwig this past weekend. May his faith grow by the love, example and prayers of our community.

Death touches members of our community

We offer our prayers and sympathy to George and Marsha Thomas on the death of their daughter-in-law, Nicole Thomas. We also offer sympathy to Jim & Eleanor Horner on the death of their son-in-law, Tom Brink. Both of these individuals died much too young, leaving a spouse and young children. May they be welcomed to their new and eternal home. We also offer sympathy to Jill Rasmer on the death of her father, Donald Herman and to Rose Marie Zaucha on the death of her brother-in-law, Alex Zalucha.

Many thanks to the following people who attended the "Valentine Visit" at Sheffield Bay this past weekend: Haila, Mya and Diane Ackley, Carly Christie, Kristi Falardeau, Jamie Middleton, Brandon Simon, Elaine Sajdak, Jen & Nadia Swiecicki & Stan Madziar. Very special thanks to Elaine Sajdak for supplying the music and all of the song lyrics...and to Nadia, for playing the piano for the residents so beautifully. We had a wonderful visit which included a sing-a-long with some old favored songs, handmade valentines, and a social. It was an amazing experience for all of us. We will have some pictures to share in the near future. What a perfect way to celebrate a day dedicated to "love".
