Stewardship Thought: Today's reading from St. Paul explains the "divine economy" of stewardship – "The relief of others ought not to impoverish you; there should be a certain equality. Your plenty at the present time should supply their need so that their surplus may in turn one day supply your need."

Happy Independence Day !!

Sunday, July 5 – Mass 10:00 AM

From Sr. Joann, During the month of July a friend of mine, Sr. Maribeth Howell, will be staying with me. Maribeth teaches scripture to graduate students at Aquinas Institute in St. Louis, Missouri. She plans on using her time at St. Hedwig's in order to prepare for the on-line classes she will be teaching in the fall. (We also have a number of parties planned!) Please give Maribeth the warm welcome for which St. Hedwig's is known.

We again this summer have the privilege of welcoming Fr. Jim Stajkowski. He arrives on Monday. Fr. Jim grew up in St. Hedwig's and lived right across from the old church on Raymond Street. His mother, Virginia, and brother, Tim, are members of our faith community. He will be celebrating mass with us this Wednesday evening and next weekend. Fr. Jim's presence also gives Fr. Kevin the opportunity to take off on a much deserved vacation. Enjoy!

Thank You Notes

Thank you to all who provided the desserts which were served after the graduation mass and to Jim & Eleanor Horner and Ilene VanOchten for setting up and serving them.

A very special thank you to the parish family of St. Hedwig's for all of the prayers, cards and concern during Jean's hospital stay. We truly felt the power of your prayers. Jean is now recuperating at West Campus. Thank you again,
Jean & Stan Madziar and the Madziar Family

CSA It is not too late to turn in a CSA pledge for 2009. Please help us meet our target. We would love to have 100% participation by all of our households. No pledge is too small or too large. Pledge cards are available at the exits of church.
