From Sr. Joann: This Thursday our nation celebrates Thanksgiving. Anticipating the holiday, we will gather together Wednesday evening at 7 PM for a Thanksgiving Mass. Come join with us and together let us give thanks to God for our abundant blessings.

Today we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, the last Sunday of the Church Year. We also end our year-long Sunday-by-Sunday hearing of Luke's Gospel. In the forefront of Luke's gospel are the need for prayer and the power of the Spirit. This is a Gospel that begins with shepherds receiving the good news directly from heaven. It ends with a thief being welcomed by Jesus into paradise. Next Sunday the Season of Advent begins with the new Church Year. In the new year we will be hearing from the gospel of Matthew.

Today we take up the collection that helps fight poverty at its roots. For 40 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has provided funding for groups that make lasting change and lift up the poor in the United States.

The Adult Ed. Class topic Morality is Monday, November 29 at the Parish House. Please call 893-1072 if you plan to attend.

Thank You

A special thank you to Fr. Kevin, Sr. Joann, the funeral luncheon committee and all who donated a dish. The food was great and I appreciated all of the help. Connie, Alexis and Zachary Zvara
