Faithful stewards give all that is asked and trust the Lord to be faithful to His promises.

Veteran's Day is Wednesday, November 11
Thanks to all of our veterans! !

From Sr. Joann, During the month of November we especially remember all those who have gone before us. This is especially true for those parish members who have died in the past twelve months: William Nutt, Elizabeth Krauseneck, Sharon Smielewski, Irene Suchyta, Joseph VanOchten, Eugene Carroll, Rebecca Andress, Eleanor Walkowiak, Violette Hatch, John Rich, Jan Roznowski, Rose Simmons, Kaitlin Sheets, Florian Pawlak, Robert Burzynski and Eleanore Adamczyk. Their names appear on our banner by the Ambo. At our All Souls Prayer Service, last Monday we expressed gratitude for the gifts they shared with us. Please use the prayers cards that were passed out during the liturgy to remember these faithful departed in your daily prayers.

Last Sunday with great joy we welcomed Melissa Hilsabeck into the Order of Catechumens and Marie Strain as a candidate for full communion into the Catholic Church. Please keep these two women in your prayers that their faith will continue to grow.

During November we will take a special look at our stewardship of time, talent and treasure. God has given each of us talents that are unique. As a Parish Community, it is important that we each give what we can to make our community stronger.

Thanks to Kathy Bigelow for making the banner with the names of the deceased of our parish, Harry Strzelecki for replacing the lock on the Ambry and to Paul Guzdial and Jim Shumann for running bus #4 on our last bus trip.

Thank you to Kathy Bigelow, Kathy Brown, Sue Burzynski, Jan Marchlewicz, Kathy Marquardt, Sr. Connie Balwinski, Gary & Susan Kendall and Stan & Phyllis Madziar for helping at the Food of Faith Dinner on Oct. 29. A total of eighty people were served.
