From Sr. Joann: This coming Thursday at 7:00 PM in our Parish Center Sr. Janet Fulgenzi will be giving a cluster presentation on the subject of What is Hope? Sr. Janet with her strong background in psychology is very able to address this topic from a Christian point of view. She is also known for her lively presentations and interactions with her listeners. Our October meetings of the Leadership Council and Commissions are cancelled twice a year so that individuals are free to attend these cluster educational/inspirational events. Others from the parish are also encouraged to attend. See you there!

Last weekend we welcomed over 260 individuals who came to St. Hedwig's to celebrate a reunion for those who attended St. Hedwig School. I received many, many compliments on how much it meant to those who were present. As one woman wrote to me, "Just being able to visit and say Hi to classmates I haven't seen since grade school was truly a treat!" Thanks go to the committee members who worked tirelessly over the past year in preparation. Thanks also go to Bob Kienbaum, for driving to Livonia to pick up and return home the four Felician Sisters who attended the reunion, Mary Ann Marciniak, Jan Bleshenski, Dan and Joann Tomczak and Pat Wenglikowski who helped at the party and the spouses of committee members who filled in where they were needed. Thanks to all of you for making St. Hedwig look so very good!

I would like to thank everyone at St. Hedwig's for all the get well cards and prayers they have sent me. I am now at Bay Shores and I still have a long way to recover, but with your prayers I know I will make it. Thank you. Audrey Harrison

Parishioners are invited to enter the names of their deceased family members and friends in our Remembrance Book located in the Gathering Space. The names in the book will be read at an All Souls Day prayer service to be held at St. Hedwig's on November 2 at 7:00 p.m.
